- Any additional costs

Any dog not so redeemed may be sold by the pound keeper to any person paying the fees and costs, as herein provided, and any dog not so redeemed or sold, shall be destroyed by humane methods.

SUMMARY CONVICTION

- 6. a) A person who contravenes a provision of this By-law by doing something which he is prohibited from doing, or by failing to do something which he is required to do, or by doing something in a manner different from that in which he is required or permitted to do in this By-law, is subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the first offence, two hundred ($200) for the second offence, and three hundred ($300) for each subsequent offence, per dog, per incident.
- b) The levying and payment of any fine for any period provided in this By-law shall not relieve a person from the necessity of paying any fees, charges or costs from which he is liable under the provisions of this By-law.
- c) A Provincial Judge, in addition to the penalties provided in this Section may, if he considers the offence sufficiently serious, direct or order the person that owns, keeps, maintains, or harbors a dog or dogs to prevent disturbance or a nuisance complained of, or to have the animal removed from the Summer Village or to have the animal destroyed.

RABIES OR COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

7. In the event of an outbreak or a threatened outbreak of rabies, or any disease affecting dogs which may be transmitted to human beings, Council may by resolution, order and direct that all dogs shall be securely tied up by the owner or shall otherwise be effectively confined and prevented from being at large, within the Summer Village of Island Lake. Any dog found at large is in contravention of this section and shall be impounded or destroyed.

8. That Bylaw 173-94 is hereby repealed.

9. THAT this by-law shall be effective as, on and from the date of final passing.

READ A FIRST TIME this 20th day of June 2012.

READ A SECOND TIME this 20th day of June 2012.

With the unanimous consent of all council Members present,
